

Testimonials from our network of professionals

Ralph Cavalucci and Cavalucci Construction have been valued partners to VanNatta Mechanical for over 30 years. Ralph's planning and dedication to the fine details is evident to his customers, as well as to our employees, and the other trades on his project. We know when working on a Cavalucci Construction project Ralph has the best interests of the customer and the desire for the best long term solutions from the initial walk through to the final details.

I have had the privilege of collaborating with Contract Builder Ralph Cavalucci for over two decades, during which he has consistently demonstrated exceptional dedication to his craft and an unwavering commitment to project coordination. His attention to detail, reliability, and willingness to go above and beyond for our clients have made him a trusted source for many projects. Ralph approaches each construction project with professionalism and integrity, always prioritizing quality workmanship and client satisfaction.

His contributions to our work together have not only elevated the results but also enriched the experience of everyone involved. I hold his expertise and character in the highest regard and recommend him without reservation. Ralph cares about your results.

I have worked with Ralph for over 20 years and I know him to be a contractor who treats each project as if it is for his own home. His workmanship and attention to detail is meticulous. His pricing is quite fair, particularly when the high quality of the final product is considered. In my experience Ralph goes well beyond that which is required by the project requirements and will always seek to ease the construction experience for the homeowner to the greatest extent possible.

As a CPA and a long-time friend of Ralph Cavalucci for over 30 years, I can confidently attest to the exceptional quality and professionalism of his work as a general contractor. Having known him both personally and professionally, I have witnessed firsthand his dedication to excellence and his commitment to delivering outstanding results.

Ralph Cavalucci has completed several renovation projects for my wife and me, each executed with remarkable skill, attention to detail, and reliability. His ability to understand our vision, provide insightful recommendations, and bring projects to completion on time and within budget has been truly impressive. Beyond his technical expertise, his integrity and transparent communication made the entire process smooth and stress-free.

I wholeheartedly recommend Cavalucci Construction, Inc. to anyone seeking a trustworthy, skilled, and professional general contractor. His work not only meets but exceeds expectations, making him an invaluable partner for any construction or renovation project.

Ralph Cavalucci has been an insurance client to my office for over 30 years. Cavalucci Construction has ALWAYS maintained complete Insurance coverage for his business through our agency (General Liability and Workers Compensation). We are located in Park Ridge, NJ and I know Ralph values his trusted and local relationships. Cavalucci is dedicated to his close team of subcontractors and his professional team (like his insurance agent) . He delivers very fine and professional work, and is a great guy.
